Note that in the bottom right hand corner of the Case Summary box there is an “E-mail Consented Parties” link. This feature allows you to send an e-mail to all of the consented parties in the case you are viewing. This feature is provided as a courtesy and you do not need to use this link to serve documents in this action. However, if you wish to contact the consented parties for any reason, you can utilize this link.

Below your Case Summary you will find the Case Details tab displayed. Here you can view the case caption, the consents recorded for plaintiffs and petitioners, and the consents recorded for defendants and respondents.
