Unequal Assessment:
 The total assessment is unequal because the property is assessed at a higher percentage of full (market) value than (check one).
56 (a) the average of all other property on the assessment roll, or 56 (b) the average of residential property on the assessment roll.
2. Full (market) value of property: $
Based on one or more of the following, petitioner believes this property should be assessed at $\underline{58}$ % or (market) value:	f full
(a) The latest State equalization rate for the assessing unit in which the property is located. (enter latest equalization rate:60%).
61 (b) The latest residential assessment ratio for the assessing unit in which the property is located. (enter residential assessment ratio:62%).
63 (c) A sample of market values of recent sales prices and assessments of comparable residential properties on which petitioner relies for objection (list parcels on a separate sheet and attach).
64 (d) Statements of the assessor or other local official that property has been placed on the roll at 65	_%.
Petitioner believes the total assessment should be reduced to $ This amount may not be less than the total assessment amount indicated in Section A (1), or Section B (3), whichever is greater.
67
Excessive Assessment:
1.68 Overvaluation. The total assessed value exceeds the full (market) value of the property.
 Total assessed value of the property: $
 Complainant believes the total assessment should be reduced to a full value of $
 Attach list of parcels upon which complaint relies for objection, if applicable. This amount may not be less than the amount indicated in Section A (1), or Section B (3).
2.68 Incorrect Partial Exemption. The taxable assessed value is excessive because of the denial of all or a portion of a partial exemption.
• Specify exemption (e.g., aged, clergy, veterans, etc): 71
 Amount of exemption claimed: $ 72 Amount granted, if any: $ 73 This amount may not be greater than the amount indicated in A (2).
 If application for exemption was filed, attach a copy of application to this petition.
